Dear Sister Sawyer:

I am pleased to accept your invitation to the Joint New England States Convention being held in Newport from April 30 – May 2. I look forward to attending the convention and addressing the delegates on May 1st, barring any unforeseen circumstances.

Please be in touch with my assistant, Robin Bailey, with any specific requests. As the date approaches, she will be contacting you with my travel information.

I look forward to seeing you, the other officers, and members during my visit.

In union solidarity,

William Burrus
President
